

2024 YOUTH SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

TWELVE WINNERS! $3,000 SCHOLARSHIP AWARDED TO EACH!

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

Applicants will be evaluated without discrimination based on sex, race, creed, or color. Emphasis will be given to those aiming for degrees in technology, business, engineering, or mathematics, especially as they relate to the energy sector. Relevant majors include, but are not limited to, computer science, mechanical engineering, electrical engineering, chemical, nuclear, environmental, civil, agricultural/biological, industrial, materials science and various branches of mathematics. Awardees are selected by a third-party committee. Applicants must meet the following criteria:

- ▶ High School seniors who will graduate by the end of the school year (May/June 2024).
- ▶ Students enrolled full-time in an accredited Florida college, university or vocational/technical school by the end of 2024.
- ▶ Students who reside at a home served by SECO Energy.
- ▶ Demonstrable financial need and adherence to all other eligibility criteria are essential.

QUALIFICATIONS
