SECO Energy District 4 Meeting
Tuesday, January 27, 2026
Marion Oaks Community Center
294 Marion Oaks LN, Ocala, FL 34473

Please join us at your upcoming District 4 Meeting!

- Doors open at 4:30 p.m. for registration and voting – light refreshments will be served.
- The business meeting begins at 6:00 p.m.

Your District 4 Meeting gives you the opportunity to elect a Trustee to represent your District on SECO Energy's Board of Trustees in accordance with the SECO Energy Bylaws Article III, Section G, paragraph 1. The current Trustee, James LaMotte, is running for re-election. Members who reside in District 4 and are interested in serving on SECO's Board, can submit a Candidate Application online – see page two for details.

Everyone who registers and votes will receive a door prize. Plus, we're giving away three (3) $250 bill credits and twenty (20) $25 bill credits during the event. To be eligible to win, you must register and vote at the District Meeting. For convenience, SECO Energy offers drive-thru registration and voting.

Don't forget to bring:

- This invitation or your SECO Energy bill
- A photo ID

Want to learn more about the candidate(s)? Visit SECOEnergy.com > Your Co-op > District Meetings & Elections the week before the Meeting. Thank you for being an active part of our cooperative community. It is our privilege to serve your family's energy needs.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Joyce Anderson". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long, sweeping underline.

Joyce Anderson Secretary/Treasurer - District 2 Trustee

TRUSTEE ELECTION CANDIDACY:

- Complete an online Candidate Application within fifteen (15) days after the date of this notice (Bylaws Article III, Section G, paragraph 2). The application must be completed in its entirety, which includes the Candidate Questionnaire. Candidates are not allowed to use the SECO Energy logo on campaign materials.
 - Application available at: SECOEnergy.com > Your Co-op > District Meetings & Elections
- Candidate must be the primary SECO Energy account holder and a natural person
- Meet Bylaws qualifications (Article IV, Section B)
- Reside in the District for a minimum of one (1) year
- Submit to a background check
- Answer a short questionnaire

Bylaws are posted at SECOEnergy.com > Your Co-op > Bylaws. Paper copies are available at our five Member Service Centers, or you can request a mailed copy.

THE FOLLOWING REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS ENSURE ELECTION COMPLIANCE:

- Only the person, or the spouse of the person, whose name appears on the official Cooperative records may register to vote at a District Meeting. Members with more than one account may only vote once.
- Each member or member's spouse must present their identification at the time of registration.
- Voting by members other than natural persons (e.g. corporations or other entities) shall be allowed upon presentation of satisfactory evidence entitling the person to vote on behalf of the member.

* Per Florida Statute Chapter 425, electric cooperatives that hold District Meetings for the purpose of electing Trustees must require the members of the District to vote in person.
